

Old House Services Directory, 2011 Edition

Last Update: August 20, 2011

The names and other information about home repair and maintenance contractors, and comments about them, contained in this directory, have been furnished by members of Dundee Memorial Park Association, as a service to other members, and are believed to be correct and reliable. These referrals and comments, however, are based only on the experience of the person furnishing the information. Due to possible changes in circumstances regarding a contractor, such as changes in personnel, or other factors, no guarantee is made, either by the person furnishing the referral, or by Dundee Memorial Park Association, as to the results you may experience if you hire such a contractor. If you are interested in hiring a contractor listed in this directory, you are encouraged to interview the contractor, as well as any references you may receive from the contractor, before you decide to hire that contractor, and to base your decision on your own investigation.

Thank you to all who contributed to this directory.
